

Hands for Larger Service

A JOURNAL DEDICATED TO ACTIVE CITIZENSHIP IN YOUR COMMUNITY.

Service: Community Youth Development

Creating a connection with your community adds value to the service you give. To make a lasting impact, make relationships with those you are serving in your community service projects. Visit local organizations and make connections with staff members, other volunteers, and those in need. This will not only make your impact greater, but it will also allow your personal community to grow.

Give Thanks!

To help the relationships in your community grow, send out a few thank you cards. In your Community Club, have each member write one to three thank you cards to organizations you have worked with. For example, if you volunteered at a local food pantry, write a card to the coordinators of the program and thank them for offering you access into their organization. Or, write a thank you card to the person or group allowing you to meet in their facility for club meetings.

XXX Community Club

Highlight club's community service project that built a strong relationship between people or groups

Picture of club