

4-H Youth Leader Record

Project record for Leadership Development, Junior Leader, Teen Leader, 4-H Ambassador, and 4-H Camp Counselor projects.

Part 1: Project Plan

To be completed at the beginning of the club year

Name: _____

Club: _____

Project (check all that apply):

Junior Leader

4-H Ambassador

Leadership Development

Teen Leader

4-H Camp Counselor

Years in a leadership project: _____

Name of adult who will help you: _____

What I plan to do and why:

(For example: I plan to organize a successful community service project with our club to clean up our community park.)

What do I hope to gain from this project?

(For example: I hope to gain organizational and leadership skills. I hope to project a positive image of 4-H to the community.)

How do I hope this project will help others?

(Some ideas might include: I hope to assist our club leader by taking on this responsibility so that he or she does not have to. I hope to be a role model for the younger members in our club. I hope a clean park will give the community a sense of pride and a place to spend time.)

Project Planning Chart

Steps I will take	People who will help me	Materials I will need	Date I plan to start	Date I plan to finish	Date project is complete

1. On a scale of 1 to 5, with 1 being “really bad” and 5 being “really great,” how would you rate the success of your youth leader project? (Circle one)

1 2 3 4 5

Describe why you give it that particular rating.

2. Describe what you would do differently next time.

3. Describe what worked really well that you would repeat next time.

4. Describe the support you received. (For example: leaders, other youth leaders, club officers, family members, neighbors, outside resources)

5. Can you see growth in any club member as a result of your leadership? Give examples.

6. Approximately how many hours did you spend on this project? _____

7. Approximately how many people did you reach with this project? _____

8. Adult club leader comments

Leader Signature

Date

Leader Name – please print

Oregon State University Extension Service offers educational programs, activities, and materials – without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, age, marital status, disability, and disabled veteran or Vietnam-era veteran status – as required by Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. Oregon State University Extension Service is an Equal Opportunity Employer. The Extension Service offers its programs and materials equally to all people. Reasonable accommodations will be provided to those with physical or mental disabilities in order to attend Extension programs. Please contact the Extension office in advance to make arrangements. Agriculture, Family and Community Development, 4-H Youth, Forestry, and Extension Sea Grant Programs. Oregon State University, United States Department of Agriculture, and Clackamas County and Washington Counties cooperating.