

Master Woodland Manager

Lane & Lincoln

March - June 2024

WHAT IS MWM?

The Master Woodland Manager (MWM) training is offered by Oregon State University's Forestry Extension as a program for those interested in trees and forests and want to learn more about forest management as well as share the knowledge gained through this training with people in their local communities.

HOW TO APPLY?

Lane County

Lincoln County

QUESTIONS?

Erin Giebner
Program Coordinator
erin.giebner@oregonstate.edu

WHO SHOULD APPLY?

Whether you own zero, five, or 1,000 acres, the MWM program will help you gain skills and understanding of forest management and allow you to share your passion for stewardship with others.

WHAT WILL I LEARN?

- Make forests better suited for wildlife, timber production, and recreation
- Make forest resilient to fire, pest, and disease
- Manage road building and maintenance
- File your taxes correctly if you're a landowner
- Understand local ecological factors (soils, historical land use, trees and plant species, and associated wildlife)
- Conduct assessments to determine woodland health and growth patterns
- Meet long-term visions for your property

Non-discrimination Statement
Oregon State University Extension Service prohibits discrimination in all its programs, services, activities and materials on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, gender identity (including gender expression), sexual orientation, disability, age, marital status, familial/parental status, income derived from a public assistance program, political beliefs, genetic information, veteran's status, reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity. (Not all prohibited bases apply to all programs.)

Oregon State University
Extension Service
Master Woodland Manager

Oregon Forest
Resources Institute